Gus,

It looks like there was another delivery exception for these drives today, due to the business being closed. Please note that FedEx left a door tag on Suite 100 for the drives.

Here is the FedEx tracking number again, for reference: 772094790032

Also, at the time of copying data to the drives, is it possible to folder the GMail and GDoc/GDrive data separate from the other data? This would greatly assist us with our processing.

Thank you,
Camille

Gus,

We noticed that a delivery exception had occurred for the below tracking number, so it did not get delivered today. We apologize for the inconvenience.

We called FedEx to check in on the delivery exception, and they informed us that they could not deliver the package due to lack of a suite number for the address, and that they would try again Monday.

Can you let us know if there is a specific suite number associated with the address below? Otherwise, they have informed us that they will try delivering to suite 100 on Monday.

Hello Gus.

Can you send me your physical address? I would like to have my team send you 3 pinpad hard drives for tomorrow AM delivery.

email: Once you have completed the exports I would like you to copy the mailboxes to one of the pinpad drives and ship it to my team.

PCs: The other 2 pinpad drives are for Lars to collect the 7 PCs remotely. Can you let us know when we can schedule that with Lars and my team?

Sincerely,

Kris Taylor
